Outline Description	Statue of St Catald
Property Description	The limestone state representing St Catald is cut in the round, and is set on a massive rectangular pedestal. The saint is represented wearing the Bishop's robes, stole and mitre, holding an open book in the right, while blessing with the left hand. The statue is of a high artistic quality. A stone plaque bearing an indulgence dated 1865 is centrally placed between the plinth and the pedestal.
