PRESS RELEASE:

SUĊĊESSI MALTIN by the Malta Concert Orchestra

On Friday 24th May the Malta Concert Orchestra will be performing another concert in the Suċċessi Maltin series at Pjazza Teatru Rjal. This concert will be a trip down memory lane with some of Malta's most popular singers such as Mary Spiteri, Maryrose Mallia, The Greenfields and Tony Camilleri 'L-Għannej' who will be joining the Malta Concert Orchestra on stage. The concert will feature all-time favourite songs such as Fit-Tieġ tan-Neputija, Is-Saħħara ta' Wied Għafri, Tfajjel Ċkejken, L-Għannej, Tema minn Ġensna, Il-Banda ta' Indri and many others.

The orchestra, formerly known as the PBS Orchestra, was set up in 2014. In 2017 it moved to Pjazza Teatru Rjal and was rebranded as the Malta Concert Orchestra with a mission "to reach out to people across the board through accessible and inspiring musical performances." The MCO is a versatile ensemble made up of professional and semi-professional musicians who perform in formations of various sizes depending on venue and occasion. This year's Suċċessi Maltin will be under the direction of Maestro Paul Abela, a graduate of the Berklee College of Music in Boston and one of Malta's foremost composers of popular songs and musicals, while the musical arrangements were done by Maestro Joe Brown.

The concert at 20:30h. Students and senior citizens may benefit from special discounts on concert tickets. For more information and tickets go to www.pjazzateatrurjal.mt
