PRESS RELEASE

The Malta Concert Orchestra performs POP at Pjazz Teatru Rjal

On Friday 26th April, Pjazz Teatru Rjal's own Malta Concert Orchestra will be joined on stage by singers Jackie Pace Delicata, Angela Tirchett, Josef Tabone, Clive Muscat, Ozzy Lino and Jasmine Abela to perform some of the all-time pop music favourites such as Eye in the Sky, Can't Stop the Feeling, Hey Jude, Uptown Funk and much more. This concert, entitled MCO POP, is under the direction of Maestro Joe Brown who was also responsible for the musical arrangements.

The MCO is a versatile ensemble made up of professional and semi-professional musicians who perform in formations of various sizes depending on venue and occasion under the direction of its associate conductors Paul Abela and Joe Brown. During its short history the orchestra has already performed an impressive number of performances around Malta and Gozo with annual editions of Suċċessi Maltin, Notte Italiana, A Night at the Musicals, charity Christmas concerts as well as a number of free concerts in various localities around Malta as part of Pjazz Teatru Rjal's community outreach programme Pjazz fi Pjazz.

Maestro Brown is an experienced conductor/arranger with over 20 years' experience in studio recordings and television programmes. He has conducted the orchestra for the Malta Eurovision Song Contest and other national festivals, composed the music for various local TV series and collaborated with international artistes such Johnny Logan, Tracey Shields, T.J. Slater, The Drifters and Brotherhood of Men amongst others. He has conducted also in the UK and Australia and has been involved in over 300 concerts and 600 television programmes.

The concert starts at 20:30h. For tickets and more information visit www.pjazzateatrurjal.mt
